

My Safe Care

Healthcare institutions and caregivers are responsible for safe care. But patients can also play an important role themselves to prevent mistakes and accidents during their care process. Patient safety charts make patients aware of what they can and may expect during their treatment. And which questions they can ask if things go different than expected.

Existing charts (subjects) on www.MijnZorgVeilig.nl for a customized patient safety chart

- ✔ Ensure to have a current medication list
 - ✔ Take care for safe drug use
 - ✔ A safe treatment for patients with trombosis
- ✔ Together with your primary care doctor work on your safety
 - ✔ A safe treatment in a carecenter
 - ✔ A safe treatment for pregnant women
 - ✔ A safe treatment in a hospital
 - ✔ A safe treatment in a polyclinic
 - ✔ A safe treatment for your child
 - ✔ A safe endoscopy treatment

atient safety charts, an aid for the communication between the care professional and the patient.
To involve patients more in their own safety.

You can find the patient safety charts on www.mijnzorgveilig.nl

An initiative of the Dutch Federation of Patients and Consumer Organisations in the Netherlands (NPCF).